Mission expenditure in 2004

In 2004 the Court awarded grants totalling £191,690, comprising:

Canada                      C$ 267,000 (£108,092)

West Indies                US$ 150,000 (£83,598)

Mission expenditure in 2005

This year, grants in Canada have mainly been awarded to fund native ministry work and theological training. In two cases, support was given for delegates to attend a Diocesan Synod and a national gathering. In the West Indies, grants have been made for the training of clergy, repairing churches damaged by hurricanes and building schools.

Membership of the Court

The Revd Colin Fox was welcomed as a new member of the Court.

Litigation in Canada

Legal fees of over £283,000 had been expended by the Company up to the end of 2004 in defending itself against claims for damages in the Canadian courts.

Visit to Canada

Timothy Duke, a member of the Court, will visit a number of dioceses in Canada later this year.
